Dispute Resolution Services

At Hutchison & Steffen Dispute Resolution Services, the Firm provides a full range of out-of-court mediation and arbitration services to private individuals, attorneys, business, labor, insurance, and other parties who seek equitable resolution of their disputes without the time, expense, and frustration which often accompany the more formal trial court system.

The Firm offers parties a select panel of neutral arbitrators/mediators who are experienced in resolving a wide variety of matters such as disputes involving personal injury, business, real estate, employment, construction, and medical malpractice. These disputes can be handled by informal and non-adversarial mediation to a more formal arbitration process, depending on the desires and needs of the parties.

Hutchison & Steffen Dispute Resolution Services is headed by two leading legal professionals, John T. Steffen and the Honorable Thomas L. Steffen, former Chief Justice of the Nevada Supreme Court and graduate of the Dispute Resolution Program of Harvard Law School.

Thomas L. Steffen

Chief Justice
Nevada
Supreme Court
(Ret.) 1982-1997

Thomas L. Steffen

CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE NEVADA SUPREME COURT (RET.)

Since his retirement as Chief Justice of the Nevada Supreme Court in 1997, Thomas L. Steffen has been a vital member of Hutchison & Steffen, serving as Of Counsel. He attended law school at George Washington University, graduating with honors, and serving on the Board of Editors of the George Washington Law Review. He earned an LL.M degree in the judicial process from the University of Virginia. Thomas engaged in a successful and varied civil trial practice in the state and federal courts before his appointment to the Nevada Supreme Court in 1982. He is also honored to be a graduate of the Dispute Resolution Program of Harvard Law School.
