Experience

The attorneys of Hutchison & Steffen's Appellate Litigation practice have extensive experience in appellate law. They have participated as counsel in cases before the United States Supreme Court, Federal Appellate Courts, and the Nevada Supreme Court. Two of the Firm's attorneys have combined experience of more than 28 years of service with the Nevada Supreme Court – one served on the Nevada Supreme Court for 15 years, retiring as Chief Justice, and another was both a staff attorney and a longtime supervising staff attorney at the court. The Firm's lawyers have worked as law clerks for both federal courts of appeals and the Nevada Supreme Court, where the Firm's experience is unparalleled in Nevada. The Firm's appellate litigators are licensed before the U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. District of Columbia Court of Appeals, and state appellate courts in Nevada, Utah, Arizona, California, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Texas, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Massachusetts, New York, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

The Importance of Experienced Appellate Counsel

Appellate Litigation is a distinct practice area requiring a sophisticated understanding of appellate procedure, advanced legal analysis, and persuasive written and oral advocacy.

Appellate litigators, frequently working on matters that have already been tried, must work closely with trial counsel to properly outline and preserve legal issues for appeal.

Once a matter is before an appellate court, counsel must have the experience and skills to present logically developed and legally supported arguments to the court.
